Residential Returning Student Program Change Form

Students returning from a withdrawn status or returning after completing a Waldorf program are considered returning students. Returning students wishing to resume in their program of study or pursue another Waldorf program must first complete and return this form to the University. Returning students are subject to current admissions requirements and must submit all required official documents. They must also have no student account balance. Additional official transcripts not previously submitted may be requested through the Waldorf Transcript Request Service.

Note: Current policies, program requirements and tuition rates will apply. This type of information will be included in the new applicant evaluation report. Please allow 10-15 business days for processing. Once your applicant evaluation report is completed, you can enroll through your academic advisor or student services representative. Please complete and return this form to WAL-Evaluations@waldorf.edu.
